LIVING

Because Thanksgiving isn't just a one day event but a way of life:

Let Us Give Thanks

By Gerhard Frost

Let us give thanks this moment:

for the sturdy fact of God's continuing love,

for mercies which go before us and follow after us,

for those free gifts

which cost God so much.

Let us give thanks:

for memory and expectation,

for the good that we have known and know today in Jesus Christ, for the Spirit's brooding presence in our nights and in our days.

Let us give thanks:

for pleasures which comfort and pains which force our growth and keep us at the Shepherd's side, for deep meanings revealed and mysteries mercifully concealed, for the image of God within us,
the capacity to inquire and adore.

Let us give thanks for one another,
for just being together,
for differences which complement and complete, for gifts which enrich
and disagreements which challenge, for our oneness in Christ.

Let us give thanks
for melody and mirth,
for rhythm and beat,
for the repeated and the common,
for the ever-unfolding,
and for senses with which to respond.

And let us give thanks for Someone to thank.

Teachers' Convention: Please ensure that you register for the Convention and make your final decision about workshops by Thursday (Oct. 15)!

Here is the REGISTRATION LINK along with some DETAILS on the process.

TfT 101: Registration for TfT 101 is embedded in the Teachers' Convention registration process so please follow the links above. TfT 101 is for new teachers (and their mentors), teachers new to Christian education and experienced teachers who'd like a refresher.

LEADING

The second Wisdom for the Way VIDEO by Rod Wilson is now available. This week's topic is on emotional intelligence. You are encouraged to watch the video with some colleagues so that together you can reflect on the content. Just a quick reminder that video access is for Christian Schools Canada schools, so please do not share them without the consent of CSC.
